

Sponsored Posts:

Although very selective, I do work with products, destinations, and tour operators on blog post placements (with links) or as the industry labeled them 'sponsored posts.'

If you are looking to write a guest post for Stay Adventurous and want a link to a product, destination or tour operator and not a personal blog, this is a 'sponsored post.'

Sponsored Posts Criteria

- It is a guest post written by the 'sponsor' and then edited / approved by the Stay Adventurous editor. Any changes will be discussed.
- It must be relevant to the Stay Adventurous readership; determined by the Stay Adventurous editor
- The link must be relevant to the Stay Adventurous site; determined by the editor
- It must 250 < X < 600 words
- It must include at least one photograph with credit to the photographer

Sponsored Post Prices

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-----------|

Further pricing discounts available when working with same client / writer over multiple placements. Also, ad space is available on the Staying Adventurous Podcast. For details please email operations@stayadventurous.com for details.
